Topic: Offenses against the protection of information

Activity

| | |
|---|---|
| Goal/Aim | The activity will help to consolidate / learn habits that will protect against threats lurking in the network, such as the use of strong passwords, methods of creating strong passwords. |
| Duration | approximately 30 minutes |
| Objectives | To find out what is the knowledge of participants about the use of strong passwords, share knowledge about how to create strong passwords. |
| Needed materials | Phone / tablet / computer with Internet access, cards, markers |
| Instructions | − Ask the participants to write a sample password on the cards (up to 1 minute),− Provide guidance on building strong passwords as recommended by cybersecurity specialists− On the basis of the information provided, ask the participants to construct a strong password, which they will write on the cards according to the jointly agreed parameters, e.g .:1. The minimum number of characters, e.g. 122. At least 2 digits3. Required special characters4. It is not possible to use characters that are next to each other on the keyboard (eg qwerty, 123456, qweasd).(up to 5 min)− Prepare on the blackboard two headings: password 1 \| password 2− Ask the participants to write down both of the created terms in the appropriate columns on the board− Have a group discussion about techniques for building strong and memorable passwords (up to 15 minutes). |